Dear Sir.

Mr. Bhabha wired to me yesterday that he had asked you to send the G O about my furlough direct to me

I had hoped to get orders passed on the subject so as to enable me to draw the pay to which I am entitled for this month, before leaving But as that is now impossible I shall be obliged if you will kindly arrange for my pay for the portion of this month during which I am on duty to be paid to me in London one half of it at 1/6 and the other half at the current rate of exchange

I shall also be obliged if you will arrange for my Furlough allowance to be paid to me in London
